‘’Dear Adelphos,

So here’s the deal, what you plan on doing is horrible, just plain horrible, and I will not be a part of it. We have only known, (really known), each other for just a few months now and you have decided to ask me to be a part of your horrid plans. I’m just ashamed that you have started doing this, especially because you’re my brother, my only brother. This ‘’bloodline’’ was an awful thing created in the past, and was meant to be stopped, and stay stopped. I saw your notes, the ones on the arachnid, and the other ones too. I would tell someone, but I don’t really have anyone to tell.

I will stop you. I don’t care how long it takes. Also, I would ‘’fill in the blanks’’ if that related to the situation.

Sincerely,
Your only brother
